CORAVIN LIST

Exceptional wines from the Devonshire Cellar, available by the glass.

White

Pieropan ‘La Rocca’ Soave Classico Organic 2022– Veneto, Italy
125ml £20.50

La Rocca is Pieropan’s flagship Soave, sourced from a single south-west facing vineyard below the castle walls of Soave town, where limestone soils bring tension and complexity to this beautifully expressive Garganega. The 2022 vintage is fermented and matured in oak, giving a layered and luxurious texture without overwhelming the purity of the fruit. Aromas of baked apple, chamomile, toasted almond and warm stone unfold on the nose, while the palate is rich yet finely poised, with notes of honeyed citrus, fennel, and a savoury, mineral finish.

Domaine Leflaive Mâcon-Verzé Les Chênes 2019 – Burgundy, France
125ml £18.00

Domaine Leflaive is one of Burgundy’s most revered estates, and this Mâcon bottling is a rare chance to access their winemaking genius without reaching for a Grand Cru. From organically and biodynamically farmed vines, this Chardonnay offers beautifully focused citrus, white flowers and crushed shell minerality. Vibrant, pure and expressive, a lesson in restraint and detail.

Rioja Vega Tempranillo Blanco Reserva 2018 – Rioja, Spain
125ml £24.50

Tempranillo Blanco is an ultra-rare natural mutation of the red variety, grown only in Rioja. This Reserva spends time in barrel, giving it a golden hue and aromas of vanilla, pear skin, and spiced almond. Rich and textured like a white Burgundy but with its own Iberian soul, creamy yet dry, exotic but disciplined.

Red

Gevrey-Chambertin 2018, Domaine Rossignol-Trapet – Burgundy, France
125ml £25.50

One of the most complete expressions of Gevrey-Chambertin village-level wine you’ll find from old vines (45–85 years), vinified from three terroirs: stony valley-floor plots for elegance, mid-slope clay for body, and parcels below the grands crus for finesse. Complex, concentrated, and a standout value in the appellation.

Flor De Pingus 2010, Dominio De Pingus – Ribera Del Duero, Spain
125ml £25.50

Made by Danish winemaker Peter Sisseck, Flor de Pingus is the more accessible sibling to the legendary Pingus. Sourced from old, organically farmed vines, it’s rich and dense, with layers of black plum, graphite and spice. It marries New World opulence with Old World detail, bold, but never heavy.

Ridge “Geyserville” Zinfandel 2021 – Sonoma County, California, USA
125ml £25.50

A legendary field blend, Geyserville is mainly Zinfandel with Carignan, Petite Sirah and more, from century-old vines. Ripe but restrained, it offers bramble fruit, crushed herbs, black tea and polished oak. Ridge’s philosophy of minimal intervention and gentle ageing make this one of California’s most age-worthy and complex reds.

Orange

Colbajè Pinot Grigio Ramato – Friuli, Italy 125ml £19.50

An elegant take on orange wine, this copper-hued Ramato is made from Pinot Grigio fermented on its skins for depth and texture. Notes of dried apricot, blood orange and tea leaf meet a gentle tannic grip. A traditional Friulian style, revived with a minimalist touch.
